PRAYER GUIDE

Hey CFCC Family,

Thanks for joining us in studying the Bible and praying about the Together initiative. We are excited to see what God does as we look to launch this initiative and reach more people with the truth.

This prayer guide is designed to be used for six days – beginning February 24th. We'll wrap up on March 1st – the same day as the Together prayer event.

Together Prayer Event

Please join with us on Saturday, March 1st at CFCC for a 12-hour prayer event. We will meet at 7:00 a.m. to be in constant prayer for our Together initiative.

How to Use the Prayer Guide

READ

Read the scripture aloud. You may also find it helpful to look it up in the Bible and read the surrounding verses to better understand the context. YouVersion is a great online Bible that's easy to use.

REFLECT

Read the reflective thought that explains the Bible passage and ask yourself how the passage applies to your life.

PRAY

Communicate with God. Have a conversation with Him like you would a friend. Listen as much as you speak.

APPLY

After reading through the day's prayer guide, write down any thoughts or ideas that apply to your growth as a follower of Jesus or to your involvement in the Together initiative.

DAY 1: FEB 24TH

READ

“And we are confident that he hears us whenever we ask for anything that pleases him. And since we know he hears us when we make our requests, we also know that he will give us what we ask for.” 1 John 5:14-15 (NLT)

REFLECT

During the next six days, we'll be asking God to let us see things the way He sees them, to understand how much He loves those that are still far from Him, and to become passionate about the unlimited potential CFCC has through the power of His Holy Spirit.

PRAY

Thank God for being there even though you can't see Him. Acknowledge His amazing power. Pray that His will is done in the lives of the people of CFCC. Pray that each of us will fulfill the potential that we have and that we would not rely on our own power but God's power to bring us Together.

APPLY

After reading through today's prayer guide, write down any thoughts or ideas that apply to your growth as a follower of Jesus or to your involvement in the Together initiative.

DAY 2: FEB 25TH

READ

“But when you pray, go away by yourself, shut the door behind you, and pray to your Father in private. Then your Father, who sees everything, will reward you. When you pray, don’t babble on and on as people of other religions do. They think their prayers are answered merely by repeating their words again and again. Don’t be like them, for your Father knows exactly what you need even before you ask him!” Matthew 6:6-8 (NLT)

REFLECT

No matter what you learn about the principles of prayer, always remember that prayer is primarily personal, intimate communication with God. God longs for you to spend time with Him and for you to be brutally honest with Him. He waits, He sees, and He rewards. Your reward may be the understanding that God actually knows your heart and hears your desires. It may be that as you pray you sense Him changing your heart and desires.

PRAY

Ask God to teach you how to pray more faithfully and honestly. Practice being still and hearing from Him. Thank God for CFCC and ask Him to show you how you can help fulfill its mission to go, make, baptize and teach.

APPLY

After reading through today's prayer guide, write down any thoughts or ideas that apply to your growth as a follower of Jesus or to your involvement in the Together initiative.

DAY 3: FEB 26TH

READ

“Such things were written in the Scriptures long ago to teach us. And the Scriptures give us hope and encouragement as we wait patiently for God’s promises to be fulfilled. May God, who gives this patience and encouragement, help you live in complete harmony with each other, as is fitting for followers of Christ Jesus.” Romans 15:4&5 (NLT)

REFLECT

There are a lot of challenges before us today: as a church with the Together initiative and in our individual lives with the countless challenges we face daily. We certainly need hope, encouragement, and patience. One of the awesome things about the Bible is that it’s full of stories of broken ordinary people stepping out in faith to do and endure things they never thought possible. Commit today to read the Bible daily if you’re not already doing it. Whether it’s one verse or one chapter, read it and ask God to help you apply it. The result will be more hope, more encouragement, and more patience.

PRAY

Thank God for the hope, encouragement, and patience that come from reading the Bible. Ask Him to help you to be faithful in reading and applying it to your life. Continue to ask Him what steps you need to take to be faithful in your actions, finances, and relationships.

APPLY

After reading through today's prayer guide, write down any thoughts or ideas that apply to your growth as a follower of Jesus or to your involvement in the Together initiative.

DAY 4: FEB 27TH

READ

“This is real love—not that we loved God, but that he loved us and sent his Son as a sacrifice to take away our sins. Dear friends, since God loved us that much, we surely ought to love each other. No one has ever seen God. But if we love each other, God lives in us, and his love is brought to full expression in us.” 1 John 4:10-12 (NLT)

REFLECT

Did you catch that? The best way for people that are far from God to see Him is for those of us who are followers of Jesus to love each other. As imperfect and messed up as we are, He still uses us to be His representatives. If CFCC is going to be anything meaningful, we must sacrificially love others with a humble attitude.

PRAY

Thank God for the people in your life who have shown you His love, those people that were part of your journey to something better - to freedom. For many of us those people have been people we've met at CFCC. Pray that God would continue to lead us to be a church that passionately, recklessly, sacrificially, shares His message of freedom with the hurting world around us in a relevant way.

APPLY

After reading through today's prayer guide, write down any thoughts or ideas that apply to your growth as a follower of Jesus or to your involvement in the Together initiative.

READ

"And so, dear brothers and sisters, I plead with you to give your bodies to God because of all he has done for you. Let them be a living and holy sacrifice—the kind he will find acceptable. This is truly the way to worship him." Romans 12:1 (NLT)

REFLECT

God has forgiven us because He loves us as his children. He wants us to give up our right to living only for ourselves and live for Him. We are daily fighting the battle between the Adversary and the Advocate. Jesus says, "Come follow Me." Plan how to make a deliberate commitment to following God's way - the way of peace and joy.

PRAY

Ask God how to walk in his ways. Seek out how to be filled with his Holy Spirit so that you can be more receptive to his will.

APPLY

After reading through today's prayer guide, write down any thoughts or ideas that apply to your growth as a follower of Jesus or to your involvement in the Together initiative.

DAY 6: MAR 1ST

READ

“Remember this—a farmer who plants only a few seeds will get a small crop. But the one who plants generously will get a generous crop. You must each decide in your heart how much to give. And don’t give reluctantly or in response to pressure. ‘For God loves a person who gives cheerfully.’ 2 Corinthians 9:6-7 (NLT)

REFLECT

God loves when we give quickly once the opportunity presents itself. All we have belongs to God and He calls us to be good stewards of these resources. Generosity flows naturally from the hearts of those who love Him. Think of how you can cheerfully give as an act of gratitude for God’s love and mercy.

PRAY

Ask God to direct you about what to give, and how to give generously. Thank God for the gift he has given of his son, and how he has made an eternal difference in your life. Ask God how you can make an eternal difference in your living and your giving.

APPLY

After reading through today's prayer guide, write down any thoughts or ideas that apply to your growth as a follower of Jesus or to your involvement in the Together initiative.
